

CHURCH OF CHRIST

WINNSBORO, TEXAS

FAMILY & YOUTH INTERN

The Winnsboro Church of Christ is prayerfully seeking an intern to assist with our summer youth and family activities. The intern will work alongside and receive support and instruction from the preaching minister while serving as the primary youth minister for the summer, teaching classes as well as planning and leading events. He will partner with us to lead people to Christ, nurture spiritual growth, and foster lifelong habits of discipleship—particularly among teens, children, and young families.

Goals & Expectations

- Teach bible classes and lead regular devotionals
- Plan and lead family and youth events such as retreats, trips, and service opportunities
- Assist with organizing and leading with activities such as Vacation Bible School
- Regularly participate in worship services with the opportunity to preach
- Organize and communicate a schedule of activities to families, youth, and the congregation
- Maintain an office presence four days a week in addition to Sunday responsibilities, with reasonable flexibility based on ministry activities outside of office hours
- Participate in weekly staff meetings and monthly elders and deacons meetings

Qualifications & Character

- A consistent and visible commitment to Jesus Christ and to the authority of Scripture
- A Spirit-filled attitude of grace and transformation
- A heart for discipling children, teens, and families
- Ability to teach God's Word clearly and faithfully
- Willingness to work under the leadership of elders and in collaboration with church staff
- Strong relational, organizational, and communication skills

Compensation

- $5,000 for the summer (roughly June 1 - August 13)
- Room and board in members' homes

Apply Now!

